

FASTSTUDENT

Case: 29472 Update course list dropdown on grading page to use instructor course assign list table

The limit of the number of instructors that can access a course for grading has been removed.

Case: 29473 Update the Assign Instructor feature to populate the instructor course assign table and keep them indefinitely

When instructors are manually added to a course they will persist until the course has been graded, or they have been added in your Student Information System.